

CAPITAL ATHLETIC CONFERENCE PRESS RELEASE

Randy Loden, David Lupinetti And Randy Halfpap Gain CAC Men's Tennis Post-Season Honors

YORK, Pa. - Mary Washington junior Randy Loden (Richmond, Va./Godwin) was named the Player of the Year while Salisbury's David Lupinetti (Walkersville, Md./Walkersville) and Randy Halfpap were named Rookie of the Year and Coach of the Year, respectively, as the Capital Athletic Conference announced its 2008 All-CAC Men's Tennis Team.

Loden led a conference-high eight UMW players onto the All-CAC team and helped the Eagles win their ninth-straight CAC team championship. He is the ninth Mary Washington player to be named CAC Men's Tennis Player of the Year in the last 11 years.

Lupinetti, the fourth Salisbury player to gain Rookie of the Year recognition since 2001, and Halfpap led the Sea Gulls to first place in the CAC regular season. Four SU players were named to the all-conference team, and Halfpap was named CAC Coach of the Year for the third time in his career.
